PROPERTY

Sold Under The Hammer!!!!

One of the most successful formulas for wealth creation is buying real estate in prime locations and in particular, properties located on absolute waterfront. Marabou Drive is one such location occupying one of the most picturesque stretches of the Ross River and offering residents unrivalled river and park views. This stately residence constructed by its original owners and tightly held for the past 20 years is now coming to market with the current owners having raised their family there and now seeking a change to suit their stage in life.
