A Jewel in the City!

Built in the late 1800s for the gold rush at Ravenswood and transported to a maturing Townsville City in the 1920s this cottage has stood the true test of time and has a great story to tell, constructed of hardwood timbers once common in the area she has been lovingly cared for and maintained by her current owner for the past 35 years, with a new roof, new plumbing and a re-wiring and continual pest treatments ensures she will maintain her proud stance well into the future.
