Renovation Sensation!

Character and appeal abound in the well positioned & highly sought-after inner-city suburb of Hermit Park. This immaculate, high-set Queenslander has undergone a significant transformation that has been finished to the highest of standards that includes the addition of a brand new kitchen, two new bathrooms, paint both inside and out as well as the addition of a huge 5m x 5.8m outdoor entertaining zone all under the new main roof structure. Sitting proudly upon its 809m2 allotment with double gate side access, the property is located in the Pimlico school catchment and is just a moments' walk to parks, Coles and other specialty shopping! With all the modern day conveniences one has come to expect, coupled with a nod to its character filled past, this home will not last so book your inspection today!
