Inner City Chic Cottage

Poised to take full advantage of her location this superbly finished inner city cottage has the perfect blend of clean lines from her renovations and unique period features that give these circa 1900 homes their distinct character and feel. This home has four bedrooms and an ensuite off the main, fully air-conditioned, the homes current configuration offers four light filled bedrooms with 3m ceilings, or three with and office/study depending on requirements. Views of Castle Hill are perfectly framed by the North facing front verandah. A manageable well presented yard completes this period wonder.
