Brilliant Opportunity in Burdell

Offered to the open market for the first time since its construction in 2013, this fantastic low maintenance and well maintained four-bedroom home in Burdell is located in a quiet court, surrounded by other quality and well-looked after family homes. This home represents a great chance to enter the market and secure that all-important first home or, if you are an investor, that safe, quality investment property. With a functional and family friendly layout, separate theatre room and generous double gate side access to the yard, everything is set out perfectly and ready for a lucky buyer to make it home.

The Property

- Built in 2013 with great modern finishes throughout and family friendly floor plan
